Senator Simpson moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 1557 and 1558

insert:

Section 14. The Department of Management Services shall commission a special actuarial study to determine the costs of providing a new death benefit through the pension plan for members of the Florida Retirement System Investment Plan who are killed in the line of duty. The study must examine the costs associated with offering a death benefit that allows the surviving spouse or surviving dependent children of an

12 investment plan member killed in the line of duty to elect the 13 death benefit provided under s. 121.091(7) (d), Florida Statutes, 14 after transferring the value of the member's investment account
15 to the pension plan, in lieu of the current death benefit
16 provided under the investment plan. The Department of Management 17 Services shall consult with the Legislature about the 18 alternatives to be considered and the level of detail to be 19 included in the special study results. The results of such study 20 shall be provided to the Governor, the President of the Senate,
21 and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by March 1, 22 2015.
