

1                                   A bill to be entitled
 2           An act relating to the presidential preference
 3           primary; amending s. 103.101, F.S.,; revising the date
 4           of the presidential preference primary; providing an
 5           effective date.

6
 7   Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

8
 9           Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 103.101, Florida
 10          Statutes, is amended to read:

11           103.101 Presidential preference primary.—

12           (1) Each political party other than a minor political 13          party shall, at the presidential preference primary, elect one
 14          person to be the party's candidate for nomination for President
 15          of the United States or select delegates to the party's national 16          nominating convention, as provided by party rule. The 17          presidential preference primary shall be held on the third in 18          ~~each year the number of which is a multiple of 4 on the first~~
 19          Tuesday in March in each presidential election year ~~that the~~
 20          ~~rules of the major political parties provide for state~~
 21          ~~delegations to be allocated without penalty.~~ Any party rule
 22          directing the vote of delegates at a national nominating 23          convention shall reasonably reflect the results of the 24          presidential preference primary, if one is held.

25           Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.